

Chapter 21

OBD-II Diesel Diagnosis

ACROSS

- 2 Any code(s) that is displayed on a scan tool when the MIL is not on is called a _____.
- 3 _____ uses a connection between the shop PC and the vehicle DLC.

DOWN

- 1 _____ uses the scan tool to transfer data from the manufacturer's source to the shop's personal computer (PC) and then to the vehicle's PCM.
- 2 A pinpoint test is a diagnostic procedure designed to narrow the root cause of the problem to a system or a cylinder.
- 4 _____ are diagnostic procedures used to help determine the general condition of the various systems.